Dear Sir,

Dazo Developing Process

Your letter No.AS PCR3260/4647 D/2 6 1947.

I send herewith a pamphlet regarding Dazo Paper, and am sorry to say that I am out of stock of pamphlets relating to the Hand Developing Apparatus I may mention however that the difference between the two machine is that Electrically driven Apparatus has a small motor to turn the rollers from a switch whereas with the Hand Developing Machine the rollers are turned by a small wheel at the side somewhat similar to a sewing machine, otherwise the instructions in the pamphlet regarding method of developing apply to both.

As you will see from the pamphlet, Dazo Paper or cloth is exposed in the same way as Ferro Prussiate paper after which the exposed paper or cloth is simply run through between the rollers, the lower one of which revolves through a trough holding the Dazo Developing Solution and the print is throughly developed and comes through the rollers practically dry and ready for use You will also see from the pamphlet that the rate of development is 12 lineal feet for minute and therefore after exposure a Dazo Print is ready for use in a matter of few secons

The Dazo Developing Solution is made by putting the whole contents of the Dazo Developing Powder into one pint of water and this one pint of solution is sufficient to develop 3/4 rolls

Both the Electrically Driven Apparatus and Hand Developing Apparatus are simplicity itself and the most ordinary Office Boy could manipulate developing prints.

The prices F O R Bombay are as follows -

(1) Electrically Driven Dazo Apparatus Rs 600/-
(When ordering please state voltage of electrical supply and if, alternating current the periodicity).

(2) Hand Developing Apparatus Rs 300/-

Dazo Paper Type "D" (Black lines on white ground) 40" X 10 yds Rs 5/- per roll.

-----Do---- 30" X 10 yds Rs 4/- per roll

Dazo Tracing Cloth 40" X 10 yds Rs 61/- per roll.

Cartons of Developer for Dazo Paper and Dazo Tracing Cloth Rs 1/8/- per Carton (Each carton is sufficient to develop 3/4 rolls)

I would like to bring specially to your notice that the Dazo Tracing Cloth saves an immense amount of labour in Drawing Office by the fact that a print can be obtained on Dazo Tracing Cloth by process mentioned above from a pencilled Drawing on Tracing paper with out the labour entailed by having to make an inked Drawing

I enclose samples of Dazo Prints
